Home Arts

General Rules and Regulations

- Home Arts includes Departments 401-412.
- Open to youth and adults.
- Entries will be received from 3 p.m. to 9 p.m., Tuesday in the Home Arts Building. Entries can be picked up after 4:01 p.m. Sunday.
- Exhibitors shall have a registration number. Each entry shall have a properly filled in entry tag. Registration and tags can be obtained prior to fair at the Fair Office in Colfax or at the Fairgrounds on Tuesday of the fair.
- Articles shall be the handwork of the exhibitor and shall not have been entered at this Fair in a previous year.
- A set or pair will be judged as one.
- Classified Groups:
  - Y – Youth (K-12)
  - A – Adult
  - P – Professional Adult
- The term Professional in certain Departments shall apply to: Professional – those who give lessons or engage in the business for profit.
- Youth will use the yellow color entry tag.
- Be Certain To. State Age- Departments give awards according to age.
- Please print an M if you are a male or W for female at the top of each entry sheet. In the special designated Departments these entries will be judged separately for contests and awards.
- The superintendents, depending on space available, can change a rule in some Departments regarding size limit on an entry with prior approval.
- All food preservation entries shall follow WSU/USDA recommendations for food preservation processing times and methods, including elevations. All entries shall use standard canning jars (two-piece lids). See Department 404 for specific food preservation bulletin numbers. Food preservation entries, which do not follow the WSU/USDA recommendations, will be disqualified.
- Judging will be done Wednesday morning according to the Danish system (all worthy entries will receive ribbons). Judges may award additional points based on degree of difficulty at their own discretion.

- Top blue ribbon winners in each Department, adult and/or youth, (depending on number of entries) will compete for Best of Class ribbons. Best of Class winners may compete for First Place rosettes, and top rosette winners may compete for Best of Show Rosettes. Adult and Youth entries are judged separately. A top Adult and top Youth entry shall be awarded from all Departments. Some Departments may have special awards or contests.
- Preschool children may enter Crafts, Creative Hobbies, Fine Arts, and/or Division 14 of the Baking Division.
- Demonstrations may be given periodically in different Departments throughout the fair. Time schedules for such events will be posted in the building.
- Entries are placed on exhibit at owner's risk; however, there will be supervision by committee members at all times during the hours the building is open to the public. Utmost care is taken to protect all entries.
- If exhibitor does not find a division in a Department to fit exhibit, the Superintendent may place the exhibit at their discretion for judging.
